Video Game Clubs of America

Connecting Kids through Gaming™

Through social emotional learning through gaming and the power of education, VGCUSA established themselves in over 2,000 schools across the country to bring social philanthropy to children of all ages. With your support, Video Game Clubs of America will continue to improve the lives of students and find new ways to help children connect through gaming. We have always been very thankful for the support received from our community. This guide will help pave the pathway to show how you can help us power up our mission to make sure that NO ONE EATS LUNCH ALONE™. There are many ways you can fundraise and support VGCUSA.
Non-Streaming Events

Board Game Nights,Auctions, Car washes, Baking sales are some of the many different ways schools have raised money. Information on how to send your donations to us can be found below. If you are holding a physical event and accept cash donations, you can mail your check to Video Game Clubs of America. Please include information with the check such as the name of the event and contact information.

STREAMING

One way that many people help is by hosting a charity stream. Depending on what platform you choose to stream on (Twitch, YouTube, etc.) and what content you want to stream, there are many tools you can use to help make this a fun way to raise money.

DONATION TOOLS
Your audience needs a way to give money to VGCUSA. These donation tools take care of that for you

- Tiltify is a crowdfunding platform designed for streaming mediums like Twitch. Learn how to use this powerful tool to create your own fundraising page, embed your stream, and set goals, milestones, and rewards for donating certain amounts. Set-up takes about 5 minutes
- Streamlabs is an online fundraising platform that enables creators to broadcast a charity stream to Twitch, YouTube, and other platforms.

More Ways to Help

We are always looking for enthusiastic volunteers to help us achieve our mission. Whether you want to start a Video Game Club in your school or help us spread the word about our organization, we would love to have your support. Contact us to learn more about how you can volunteer with VGCUSA.

We believe that every child deserves a safe space to be themselves and explore their interests. By starting a Video Game Club in your school, you can help create that environment for your fellow students. Contact us to learn more about how you can help establish a Video Game Club in your school.
